Overview

The Next Founder Competition is a fully integrated entrepreneurship competition aimed at empowering higher education students with essential entrepreneurial skills. As part of the National Science Technology and Innovation (NSTI) Festival held annually in Dubai every February, the competition provides participants with a unique blend of vocational training, mentorship, and comprehensive guidance throughout their entrepreneurial journey.

Open to students from public and private higher education institutions—including Bachelor’s, Master’s, and Ph.D. programs—the competition targets those who have innovative business ideas and have started operating them on a small scale. Participants will engage in a three-day Bootcamp designed to refine their business models, harness their skills and knowledge, and gain practical business experience through mentorship and networking opportunities.

- Fill the registration form and click register
- Note: you CANNOT create multiple accounts. Make sure you type in your email and Emirates ID correctly.
